Computershare was established in Melbourne in 1978 and since then we've expanded into markets around the world to become a global leader in financial administration. We now have the largest registry business in the world and have pioneered many of the securities industry's innovations.

At Computershare, we invest in and develop our employees so they can achieve their professional goals. We encourage our people to dive in, roll up their sleeves and take on the many opportunities bound to come their way.

We offer training and development programs that allow you to expand your skills and abilities to offer you a career, not just a job. Our culture of collaboration encourages our people to work together to solve today's business problems and create tomorrow's products and services.

Being Purple

Work well together	Do the right thing	Strive for excellence	Be a pioneer	Keep customers at our heart	Move the business forward

Being Purple is being authentic and approachable, doing the right thing, challenging the status quo, admitting mistakes, and recognising achievements. Our global business has a distinctive entrepreneurial spirit, a caring and inclusive culture, and opens up a world of opportunities that could take you anywhere.

> The diversity of business exposure and practical experience I've had has empowered me to pursue continuous growth and development. There's a fantastic team culture here, with a great open-office environment.

Our diverse community

One of the greatest advantages for our organisation is the talent and diversity of our people. We want to draw on the unique knowledge and experience of every member of our team and empower them to deliver.

We strive to ensure all our employees have an equal opportunity to contribute their ideas, bring their personality to their work and showcase their skills. In fact, an important part of our strategic priorities is investing in initiatives that foster diversity and inclusion in our businesses.

Why join us?

Our Australian Roots.
We are down-to-earth, straight talking and get stuff done.

Flexible work.
We support and encourage flexible working wherever we can to help you find the best balance between work and lifestyle. This might include flexible hours, remote working or paid volunteer leave.

Unlimited potential.
Everyone at Computershare has the chance to grow and pursue career development and many of our leaders today started with us in junior positions. To assist your career journey we've invested in comprehensive learning resources and provide ongoing support to encourage and spur you on, every step of the way.

Supporting our communities.
Sustainability and Giving Back are a big part of our story. Having attained carbon neutrality status, we've now set ourselves the ambitious global target to achieve NetZero by 2042. Our Change A Life charitable foundation makes a difference by raising funds for projects chosen through an employee vote and since its launch we've raised AU$11 million.

Benefits

Employee Share Plan.
Set aside salary to purchase shares in our company and you'll increase your investment when you receive a generous company contribution towards additional shares.

Paid time away from work.
Our employees enjoy a competitive paid time off package, including a day each year to volunteer time for a good cause that is important to you.

Extra Rewards.
From tuition reimbursement to cash bonus recruitment referral programs, our comprehensive benefits package offers a multitude of options.

Internship programme

> I enjoyed my time working at Computershare, the internship helped me build up my confidence and further my knowledge of the industry, leading to me securing my current role working for a local bank.
